

ROCHEDALE PROBUS CLUB

Welcome to the Rochedale Probus Club! We are a thriving Club with friendship, fellowship and fun our ethos.

Why joining Rochedale Probus Club is such a great retirement decision -

It paves the way to stay socially active, mentally engaged, and physically healthy. Whether you're seeking to make new friends, engage in stimulating discussions, or simply enjoy a variety of fun activities, Rochedale Probus Club offers all this and more. By becoming a member, you're investing in your happiness, your wellbeing and your future.

Build Lifelong Friendships - One of the major benefits of joining our Club is the opportunity to meet like-minded individuals from the local community who share similar interests and values. The club fosters an inclusive and friendly atmosphere where members can connect, socialise and form lasting friendships. With regular meetings, outings and social events, the club provides the perfect platform to engage with fellow retirees, exchange ideas and build a strong social network. For many members, these friendships become lifelong.

Engage in Intellectual Stimulation – Rochedale Probus offers a wealth of opportunities for mental engagement and personal growth. Regular guest speakers, dine-out and travel opportunities ensure that there's always something to learn and enjoy, from fascinating talks on history, science and culture, to health and well-being. Probus clubs are self-administered - There are many opportunities to help, if you feel able – Be a part of the committee organising club activities, or assist on the 'service desk' at meetings, a sure way meet your fellow members.

Enjoy Fun and Satisfying Activities - Being part of Rochedale Probus Club is not just attending meetings, it also involves participating in a range of exciting regular social activities and outings. Whether it's a day trip to a camel farm, a theatre performance, visiting an art gallery exhibition, joining a multi-day excursion, or being a part of a club activity group, there's always something happening that will appeal. The club encourages members to stay active, explore new hobbies and enjoy life in a relaxed and fun atmosphere.
